YOUR RYBICKI TOURS ADVENTURE INCLUDES:

- Transportation- Roundtrip via modern motorcoach. Reclining seats + restroom equipped for your comfort.
- Tour at Basilica of Ste. Anne de Detroit - Detroit. Kick off the tour at the historic Basilica of Ste. Anne de Detroit, founded in 1701, making it one of the oldest Catholic parishes in the United States. This stunning French Gothic Revival basilica boasts ornate stained-glass windows, intricately carved woodwork, and a peaceful atmosphere steeped in Detroit's Catholic heritage. During the tour, admire the impressive vaulted ceilings, the renowned Assumption of the Virgin Mary artwork, and the shrine dedicated to Ste. Anne, the patron saint of Detroit.
- Most Holy Redeemer Church - Detroit. Next, a visit to Most Holy Redeemer Church, a historic Roman Catholic parish founded in 1880. The Renaissance Revival-style church, built in 1921, features Pewabic tile floors, Italian marble altars, and stunning stained glass windows. It has long been a spiritual and cultural hub, now serving Detroit's vibrant Latino community with bilingual worship and community programs. Visitors appreciate both its rich history and beautiful artistry.
- St. Anne Catholic Church. The final stop is St. Anne Catholic Church in Warren, where you'll enjoy a classic Catholic parish tradition: a fish fry meal (included and at approximately 4:30pm). Served in a warm and friendly setting, this is a perfect chance to relax and savor some local flavors while mingling with fellow travelers and parishioners. St. Anne's welcoming environment and sense of community add a comforting conclusion to the day's tour.
